4.3.5 In-person and remote access usage of library and the learner sessions/library usage programmes organized for the teachers and students

In- Person and Remote access to Library

Faculty and students come to library and access books and journals in person. Books are issued and returned as per the library norms. Faculty and students read dailies, novels, research thesis, printed journals and references in the library. Faculty and students utilize reprographic and scanning facilities in the library. The institution provides open access to the e-resources subscribed by the Library inside and outside the campus for faculty and students. This service is available round the clock. The students and faculty members benefited with this facility through several remote access subscriptions.

The library has accessibility to E-CONSORTIUM which provides online access to international & national journals. It is a digital library service. By entering the username and password the faculty and students can easily access the online journals as their learning resources. The membership for the same is renewed every year. Delnet, NDI link to authentic free, open source and public domain resources are also provided. The details of subscribed e- resources are displayed in the digital library and notice board for the awareness of faculty and students. Computers are available in the digital library to access e-resources and helping projects, research and publications. For accessing e- resources, unique login and password is provided to all users. Wi-Fi facility is provided. The institute provides broadband internet access with a speed of MBPS. Members of the library access e-journals, e books through the internet. Reprograms, Printing and Scanning facilities are also available.

Library Usage Programs

For effective utilization of library and e- resources, faculty and students are provided with training programs.

The training program creates awareness on using e-resources through the portal, e-journals , e- books, DELNET, e-PG Pathshala, NDLI. Every year, the Orientation Program is organized for fresher.
